
Youth of the Month

AWARDS

The Orange City Council Youth Awards aim to recognise and celebrate young people who make significant contributions in the areas of education, community work, sport, culture, the arts or the environment.

Nominations are open to young people aged 12-25 years who reside in the City of Orange. Monthly winners will be nominated for the Orange Australia Day Young Citizen of the Year Award.

All information provided remains the property of Orange City Council and will be treated confidentially.
